Programme
ACEM meeting, Dublin.
Thursday 4th of July 2002

9.00 - 9.25	Set up Poster boards
9.35 - 9.40	Welcome address - Bart Wagner, Northern General Hospital, Sheffield
9.40 - 10.00	EM to the rescue –The continuing role of EM in tumour diagnosis. Dr Stuart Cameron, Senior lecturer, Royal Victoria Hospital, Belfast. View poster boards - start on Tumour EM quiz
10.00 - 10.30	Coffee
10.30 - 11.30	The contribution of Transmission and Scanning Electron Microscopy to the diagnosis, understanding and therapy of infectious disease. Mr Barry Dowsett, Head of Microbial Imaging, Porton Down. Chaired by Dr Hazel Appleton, PHLS, Colindale, London.
11.30 - 12.00	View tumour EM quiz again & hand in answer sheets
12.00 - 1.00	The molecular basis of some ultrastructural appearances in renal pathology Professor Peter Furness, Leicester Royal Infirmary. Chaired by MrsTracey de Haro, Leicester Royal Infirmary
1.00 - 2.00	Lunch
2.00 - 2.45	Batten's Disease – An update. Mr Glenn Anderson, Head Biomedical Scientist, Great Ormond Street Hospital for Children, London. Chaired by Mrs Natalie Costin-Kelly, Birmingham Children's Hospital
2.45 - 3.15	Tea
3.15 - 4.15	EM to the rescue –The continuing role of EM in tumour diagnosis. Dr Stuart Cameron, Senior lecturer, Queens University, Belfast. Results of poster board quiz.
4.15 - 5.15	AGM. Chaired by Dr Brian Eyden, Christie Hospital, Manchester Members and non-members welcome.