Glasgow University -Thursday 5th July 2007.
Association of Clinical Electron Microscopists. 10th annual scientific meeting
Satellite meeting to The Pathological Society of Great Britain and Ireland.

9.00am
Registration

9.40 – 10.25am
Overview of the role of EM in paediatric pathology
Dr Gary Mierau, Children's Hospital, Denver, USA
Chaired by Mr Glenn Anderson, Great Ormond Street Hospital for Children, London

10.25 – 10.30am
Group photo

10.30 – 11.00am
Coffee break

11.00 – 11.40am
Ehlers-Danlos/extracellular matrix disorders.
Professor Mike Pope, West Middlesex University Hospital & Chelsea & Westminster Hospital London
Chaired by: Dr Jill Moss, Charing Cross Hospital, London

11.45 – 12.30pm
Ultrastructural characterization of ichthyoses and related keratinization disorders.
Dr Ingrid Hausser, Heidelberg, Germany
Chaired by: Dr Josef Schroeder, Regensburg, Germany.

12.35 – 1.00pm
Sperm centriole abnormalities are causative for Intracytoplasmic Sperm Injection (ICSI) fertilization failure
Dr Josef Schroeder, Regensburg, Germany.
Chaired by: Dr Tim Ryder, Charing Cross Hospital, London.

1.00 - 2.00pm
Lunch break.

2.00 – 2.35pm
Technical EQA feed back talk
Mrs Tracey de Haro, Leicester Royal Infirmary
Chaired by: Mr Bart Wagner, Northern General Hospital, Sheffield

2.40 – 3.15pm
Review of hereditary nephropathies
Dr Lorna McWilliam, Manchester Royal infirmary.
Chaired by: Dr Alan Curry, Manchester Royal Infirmary.

3.15 – 3.30pm
Society for Ultrastructural Pathology.
Dr Gary Mierau, Children's Hospital, Denver, USA
Chaired by: Mr Glenn Anderson, Great Ormond Street Hospital for Children, London

3.30 – 4.00pm
Tea break

4.00 – 5.00pm
AGM – open to ACEM members and non-members.
Chaired by: Dr Tim Ryder, Charing Cross Hospital, London