

Association of Clinical Electron Microscopists.
Satellite meeting to The Pathological Society of Great Britain and Ireland meeting in Amsterdam.
Thursday 8th July 2004.

9.00

Registration

9.30 – 10.15am

Digital photography in diagnostic electron microscopy.

Mr Innes Clatworthy.

Royal Free Medical School. London.

Chaired by Mr P Rowley, Royal Free Medical School, London

10.15 – 10.45am

Coffee break

11.00 – 11.45am

The role of electron microscopy in the diagnosis of neuromuscular disorders.

Professor Caroline Sewry.

Hammersmith Hospital. London, and Orthopaedic Hospital, Oswestry.

Chaired by Dr Jill Moss. Charing Cross Hospital. London

12.00 – 1.00pm

Short case presentations.

“Adenovirus in GI tract & sickle cell in brain.” (two different cases) Jill Moss

"Multiple sperm abnormalities in a case presenting with infertility" Tim Ryder

“Renal biopsy findings in a patient with haemolytic anaemia and proteinuria” Bart Wagner

1.00 - 2.00pm

Lunch break.

2.05 – 2.50pm

Tissue engineering and the myofibroblast.

Dr Catherine Sarraf.

University of Westminster. London.

Chaired by Dr Tim Ryder. Charing Cross Hospital. London

3.00 – 3.45pm

EM of a recent Norovirus epidemic in the Republic of Ireland.

Mr Patrick Costigan.

National Virus reference laboratory. University College. Dublin.

Chaired by Dr Alan Curry. Manchester Royal Infirmary. Manchester.

3.45 – 4.15pm

Tea break

4.15 – 5.00pm

AGM – open to ACEM members and non-members

Chaired by Dr Tim Ryder, Charing Cross Hospital, London