

Association of Clinical Electron Microscopists

Draft Programme

Bristol Path Soc.

Thursday 3rd July 2003

10.30 – 11.15	Electron microscopy of the 2002 Norovirus epidemic in the Republic of Ireland. Mr Patrick Costigan , Clinical Electron Microscopist. National Virus Reference Laboratory, University College Dublin. Chaired by: Dr Alan Curry, EM unit, Manchester Royal Infirmary.
11.15 – 11.45	Morning Coffee Break
11.45 – 12.35	Recent Advances in Ultrastructural Renal Pathology. Professor Terry Cook , Professor of Renal Pathology. Histopathology Department, Hammersmith Hospital, London. Chaired by: Mr Bart Wagner, EM unit, Northern General Hospital, Sheffield.
1.00 – 2.00	Lunch Break
2.00 – 2.45	Electron microscopy in the diagnosis of peripheral neuropathy. Dr Rosalind King , Principle Research Fellow. Neurosciences Department, Royal Free Hospital, London. Chaired by: Professor Jim Lowe, Neuropathology Department, Queens Medical Centre, Nottingham.
2.55 – 3.20	Paediatric Muscle biopsy case presentation. Ms Natalie Costin-Kelly , Clinical Scientist. Histopathology Department, Birmingham Children's Hospital. Chaired by: Professor Seth Love, Neuropathology Department, Frenchay Hospital, Bristol.
3.20 – 3.50	Afternoon Tea Break
3.50 – 4.15	Adult Muscle biopsy case presentation. Dr Liz Curtis , Clinical Scientist, EM unit, Queen Elizabeth Hospital, Birmingham. Chaired by: Professor Seth Love, Neuropathology Department, Frenchay Hospital, Bristol.
4.15 – 5.15	AGM